FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

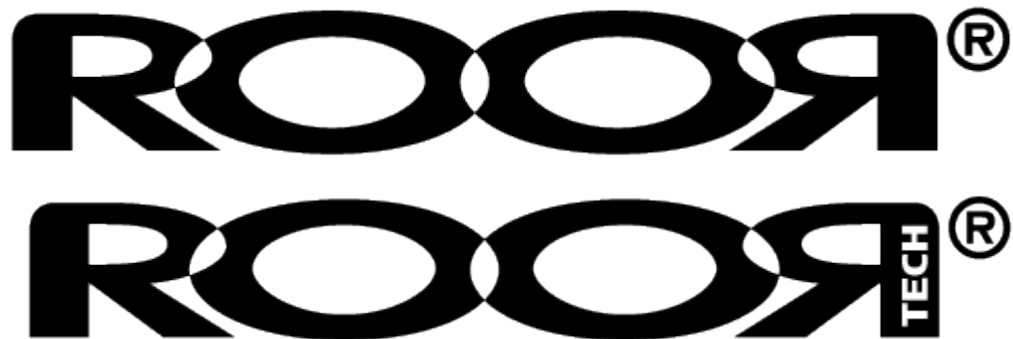

10. Headquartered in Germany since 1995, Mr. Martin Birzle d/b/a RooR (“RooR”) is an award-winning designer and manufacturer of smoker’s products. RooR products are widely recognized and highly acclaimed for its ornate and innovative products, including its borosilicate jointed-glass water pipes, parts, and accessories related thereto. Indeed, it is one of the leading companies in the industry and has gained numerous awards and recognition for its innovative products and designs.

11. For nearly two decades, RooR distinguished itself as the premiere manufacturer of glass water pipes because of RooR’s unwavering use of quality materials and focus on scientific principles to facilitate a superior smoking experience. RooR’s painstaking attention to detail is evident in many facets of authentic RooR products. It is precisely because of the unyielding quest for quality and unsurpassed innovation that RooR products have a significant following and appreciation amongst consumers in the United States.

12. Since at least August 2013, Plaintiff Sream has been the exclusive licensee of the RooR Mark in the United States. By the terms of the RooR-Sream agreement, Sream has manufactured water pipes under the RooR Marks (defined infra). Sream also advertises, markets, and distributes water pipes, water pipe parts, and other smoker’s articles in association with the RooR Marks. All of these activities are made with RooR’s consent and approval, and in accordance with RooR’s strict policies.

13. RooR has spent substantial time, money and effort in developing consumer recognition and awareness of the RooR trademarks. These recognition is also due, in part, to the collaborative efforts of Sream. Through the extensive use of the mark, RooR and its exclusive licensee Sream, have built up and developed significant goodwill in the entire RooR product line. A wide array of websites, magazines, and specialty shops include advertising of RooR’s products which are immediately identifiable. RooR (i.e., Mr. Martin Birzle) is the exclusive owner of federally registered and common law trademarks. The following is a partial (non-exhaustive) list of RooR’s trademarks:

- 1 a. U.S. Trademark Registration Number 3,675,839 for the word mark
2 “RooR” and its logo in association with goods further identified in registration 3 in international class 034.
- 4 b. U.S. Trademark Registration Number 2,307,176 for the word mark
5 “RooR” and its logo identified below in association with goods further 6 identified in the registration in international classes 025 and 034.
- 7 c. U.S. Trademark and Registration Number 2,235,638 for the word mark
8 “RooR” and its logo identified below in association with goods further 9 identified in the registration in international class 021.
- 10 d. Common law and unregistered state law rights in the following variants
11 of the RooR marks:

18 (collectively the “RooR Marks”).

19 14. The superiority of the RooR products is not only readily apparent to 20 consumers, who yearn for RooR’s higher quality glass in the marketplace, but to industry
21 professionals as well. RooR’s unique style and functional superiority has earned the brand 22 accolades in leading trade magazines and online publications. Indeed, it’s exactly because 23 consumers recognize the quality and innovation associated with RooR branded products
24 that consumers are willing to pay higher prices for them. For example, a RooR-branded
25 45 cm water pipe retails for $300 or more, while a non-RooR product of equivalent size
26 will usually sell for less than $100.

27 15. It is exactly because of the higher sale value of RooR branded products that 28 RooR products are targets of counterfeiters. These unscrupulous people and entities

1 tarnish the RooR brand by unlawfully affixing the RooR Marks to substantially inferior
2 products, leading to significant illegitimate profits. In essence, Defendants, and each of 3 them, mislead consumers to pay premium prices for low grade products that free rides on 4 the RooR brand, and in turn, Defendants reap substantial ill-gotten profits.

5 16. In order to protect the RooR Marks, Sream has been granted all enforcement 6 rights to sue to obtain injunctive and monetary relief for past and future infringement of 7 the RooR Marks.

8 DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL ACTIVITIES

9 17. Beginning on a date that is currently unknown to Plaintiff and continuing to 10 the present, Defendants have, without the consent of Plaintiff, offered to sell and sold
11 within the United states (including within this judicial district) goods that were neither 12 made by RooR, nor Plaintiff, nor by a manufacturer authorized by RooR or Plaintiff (such 13 goods are hereafter referred to as "Counterfeit Goods" – examples of which are attached at 14 exhibits A-C) using reproductions, counterfeits, copies and/or colorable imitations of one 15 or more of the RooR Marks. On information and belief, Plaintiff further alleges that 16 Defendants imported said Counterfeit Goods into the United States, or encouraged others
17 to import said Counterfeit Goods into the United States, for the purpose of reselling the 18 Counterfeit Goods in the United States.

19 18. Thus, Plaintiff is informed and believes and, upon such, alleges that, in order 20 to receive higher profit margins, Defendants have held themselves out – through the 21 counterfeit products they carry - to be sponsored by, affiliated with, and/or otherwise
22 connected with RooR / Sream. Specifically, Defendants have advertised, offered for sale, 23 sold, distributed, displayed, and/or have affixed the RooR Marks to water pipes without 24 consent, license, or approval. In so doing, Defendants have sold fake RooR's out of 25 Defendants' stores and/or distributed the same with inferior materials and inferior 26 technology.

27 19. In its ongoing investigation of sales of counterfeit products bearing the RooR
28 Marks, Plaintiff's investigator purchased a "RooR" glass pipe from Defendant Def1 for a

1 cost of $18.40 charged to the account of Plaintiff's investigator. A true and correct copy
2 of the counterfeit product purchased from Defendant Def1 as well as the purchase receipt
3 is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

4 20. Upon receipt, images and/or physical units of products purchased from
5 Defendant Def1 was inspected by Plaintiff to determine its authenticity. Plaintiff's
6 inspection of the purchased item, using security measures, confirmed that the item
7 Defendant Def1 sold to Plaintiff's investigator was a counterfeit.

8 21. In its ongoing investigation of sales of counterfeit products bearing the RooR
9 Marks, Plaintiff's investigator purchased a "RooR" glass pipe from Defendant Def2 for a
10 cost of $29.00 charged to the account of Plaintiff's investigator. A true and correct copy
11 of the counterfeit product purchased from Defendant Def2 as well as the purchase receipt
12 is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

13 22. Upon receipt, images and/or physical units of products purchased from 14 Defendant Def2 was inspected by Plaintiff to determine its authenticity. Plaintiff's
15 inspection of the purchased item, using security measures, confirmed that the item
16 Defendant Def2 sold to Plaintiff's investigator was a counterfeit.

17 23. In its ongoing investigation of sales of counterfeit products bearing the RooR
18 Marks, Plaintiff's investigator purchased a "RooR" glass pipe from Defendant Def3 for a
19 cost of $13.11 charged to the account of Plaintiff's investigator. A true and correct copy
20 of the counterfeit product purchased from Defendant Def3 as well as the purchase receipt
21 is attached hereto as Exhibit "C".

22 24. Upon receipt, images and/or physical units of products purchased from
23 Defendant Def3 was inspected by Plaintiff to determine its authenticity. Plaintiff's
24 inspection of the purchased item, using security measures, confirmed that the item
25 Defendant Def3 sold to Plaintiff's investigator was a counterfeit.

26 25. Defendants have intentionally and knowingly directed payments for the 27 counterfeit RooR products to be made to themselves within this Judicial District.

28 26. Through such business activities, Defendants purposely derived direct benefits

1 from their interstate commerce activities by targeting foreseeable purchasers in the State of 2 Arizona, and in doing so, have knowingly harmed Plaintiff.

3 27. Defendants use images and names confusingly similar or identical to the RooR
4 Marks to confuse customers and aid in the promotion and sales of its unauthorized and 5 counterfeit product. Defendants' use of the RooR Marks include importing, advertising,
6 displaying, distributing, selling and/or offering for sale unauthorized copies of RooR
7 branded products.

8 28. Defendants' use began long after RooR's adoption and use of its trademarks, 9 and after RooR obtained the trademark registrations alleged above. Neither Plaintiff nor 10 any authorized agents have consented to Defendants' use of the RooR Marks.

11 29. Defendants' actions have confused and deceived, or threatened to confuse and 12 deceive, the consuming public concerning the source and sponsorship of the Counterfeit 13 RooR-branded products sold and distributed by Defendants. By their wrongful conduct, 14 Defendants have trade upon and diminished the goodwill of the RooR Marks.
15 Furthermore, the sale and distribution of counterfeit goods by Defendants have infringed 16 upon the above-identified federally registered trademarks.

17 30. Defendants offering to sell, selling, importing and encouraging others to 18 import counterfeit goods in this manner was and is likely to cause confusion or to cause
19 mistake and/or deceive consumers who purchase the counterfeit goods

20 31. Defendants also offered to sell, sold, imported, and/or encouraged others to 21 import for purpose of resale within the United States counterfeit goods consisting of 22 reproductions and/or copies of products bearing the RooR Marks. Defendants' use the 23 RooR Marks were without Plaintiff's authorization.

24 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Trademark Infringement, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 against all Defendants)

26 32. Plaintiff incorporates here by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 27 31 above.

28 33. RooR (i.e., Mr. Martin Birzle) is the legal owner of the federally registered

1 RooR Marks as set forth in more detail in the foregoing paragraphs. Sream is the 2 exclusive licensee of the RooR Marks in the United States, and has been granted all
3 enforcement rights to obtain injunctive and monetary relief for past and future
4 infringement of the RooR Marks.

5 34. The RooR Marks are valid, protectable and distinctive trademarks that RooR
6 continuously used to promote its goods for almost two decades, of which Sream has 7 participated in since at least 2013. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 8 that a substantial segment of the relevant purchasing public recognizes the RooR Marks as 9 originating from and/or approved by RooR, and/or its exclusive U.S. licensee, Plaintiff.

10 35. Defendants, and each of them, have used marks confusingly similar to RooR's
11 federally registered RooR Marks in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114. As described supra,
12 and as shown in Exhibit A, Def1 has sold a counterfeit water pipe (and/or related parts)
13 bearing one or more of the RooR Marks, and has passed off such counterfeits as 14 authorized products from RooR / Plaintiff. Likewise, and as described supra, and as 15 shown in Exhibit B & C, both Def2 and Def3 have sold counterfeit water pipes (and/or 16 related parts) bearing one or more of the RooR Marks, and has passed off such counterfeits
17 as authorized products from RooR / Plaintiff. However, neither Def1, nor Def2, nor Def3
18 were ever provided a license, permission, consent to sell counterfeit products by the rights
19 holders to the RooR Marks and/or its exclusive licensee (Plaintiff).

20 36. By such actions, each Defendant's use of confusingly similar imitations of the 21 RooR Marks mark is likely to cause confusion, deception, and mistake by creating the 22 false and misleading impression that Defendants' products are manufactured, produced, 23 distributed, endorsed, sponsored, approved, or licensed by RooR, or are associated or 24 connected with RooR and/or Sream. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges
25 that each of the Defendants utilized the RooR Marks in order to create consumer 26 confusion, and have in-fact created consumer confusion, including but not limited to initial 27 interest confusion and confusion as to an affiliation or association between RooR and 28 Plaintiff, on the one hand, and each of the Defendants, on the other hand.

37. At no time did any of the Defendants have the authorization, legal right, or consent to engage in such activities in disregard of RooR / Sream's rights in the RooR Marks.

38. Each of the Defendants' actions complained of herein were intentional, willful, and malicious with a deliberate intent to trade on the goodwill associated with the federally registered RooR Marks.

39. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that as a proximate result of the unfair advantage accruing to each of the Defendants' business from deceptively trading on RooR / Sream's advertising, sales, and consumer recognition, each of the Defendants have made substantial sales and profits by selling counterfeit water pipes bearing the RooR Marks, in amounts to be established according to proof.

40. As a proximate result of the unfair advantage accruing to each of the Defendants' business from deceptively trading on RooR / Sream's advertising, sales, and consumer recognition, RooR / Sream have been damaged and deprived of substantial sales and has been deprived of the value of its trademark as a commercial asset, in amounts to be established according to proof.

41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that, unless restrained by the Court, each of the Defendants will continue to infringe the RooR Marks, thus engendering a multiplicity of judicial proceedings, and that pecuniary compensation will not afford Plaintiff adequate relief for the damage to its trademark in the public perception. Further, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that in the absence of injunctive relief, customers are likely to continue to be mistaken or deceived as to the true source, origin, sponsorship, and affiliation of each of the Defendants and their goods.

42. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the Defendants' acts were committed, and continue to be committed, with actual notice of RooR / Sream's exclusive rights and with an intent to cause confusion, to cause mistake, and/or to deceive, and to cause injury to the reputation and goodwill associated with RooR / Sream and RooR products. At a minimum, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief and to

1 recover each of the Defendants' profits, actual damages, enhanced profits, and damages,
 2 costs, and reasonable attorney's fees under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1116. However, given
 3 the intentional acts here Plaintiff is entitled to recover three times its actual damages or 4 three times Defendants' profits, whichever is greater, together with Plaintiff's attorneys'
 5 fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117. In addition, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1118, Plaintiff is 6 entitled to an order requiring destruction of all infringing materials in each Defendant's 7 possession.

8 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Trademark Counterfeiting, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1116)

10 43. Plaintiff incorporates here by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 11 42 above.

12 44. Counterfeiting has been recognized as a serious issue resulting in tremendous 13 losses to American businesses. To combat counterfeits, Congress passed the "Anti-14 counterfeiting Consumer Protection Act of 1966" (ACPA).

15 45. Arizona has a similar statute in Arizona Revised Statutes § 44-1522.

16 46. Defendants' actions also constitute the use by Defendants of one or more 17 "counterfeit mark" as defined in 15 U.S.C. §1116(d)(1)(B).

18 47. Each of the Defendants' unauthorized use of the RooR Marks on counterfeit 19 products that they have distributed has caused and is causing consumer confusion about 20 the source and sponsorship of these counterfeit goods.

21 48. Each of the Defendants' sales of these counterfeit products has caused 22 considerable damage to the goodwill of RooR / Sream and diminished the brand
 23 recognition of the RooR.

24 49. The sales of these counterfeit products by Defendants have further resulted in 25 lost profits to Sream and have resulted in a windfall for Defendants.

26 50. Plaintiff reserves the right to elect, at any time before final judgment is entered 27 in this case, an award of statutory damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(c)(1) and/or (2).

28 51. Because of the willful nature of the counterfeiting, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of statutory damages of up $2,000,000 per mark infringed under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(c)(2).

52. In the alternative, and at a minimum, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief and to recover Defendants' profits, actual damages, enhanced profits, and treble damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1117(b)

53. Defendants' acts of direct and/or contributory counterfeiting have caused, and will continue to cause, Plaintiff irreparable harm unless enjoined by this Court.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(False Designation of Origin/Unfair Competition, 15 U.S.C. § 1115(a))

54. Plaintiff incorporates here by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 53 above.

55. Each of the Defendants caused to enter into interstate commerce water pipes (and/or related parts) that each of the Defendants marketed through use of marks that is confusingly similar to the unregistered variants of the RooR Marks. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that unregistered variants of the RooR Marks have become associated in the minds of consumers with RooR / Sream and their respective RooR goods.

56. The marketing and sale of Defendants' water pipes (and/or related parts) as described above constitutes false designation of origin which is likely to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive consumers as to the source or origin of such goods or sponsorship or approval of such goods by RooR / Sream.

57. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that as a proximate result of Defendants' false designation of origin, each of the Defendants stand to make substantial sales and profits in amounts to be established according to proof.

58. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that as a proximate result of Defendants' false designation of the origin of their goods and services, Plaintiff has been damaged and deprived of substantial sales of its goods and has been deprived of the value of its trade dress as commercial assets, in amounts to be established according to 1 proof.

2 59. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that unless restrained by 3 this Court, each of the Defendants will continue to designate falsely the origin of their 4 goods, causing irreparable damage to Plaintiff and engendering a multiplicity of lawsuits.
5 Pecuniary compensation will not afford Plaintiff adequate relief for its resulting damages.
6 Further, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that in the absence of 7 injunctive relief, customers are likely to continue being mistaken or deceived as to the true
8 source, origin, sponsorship, and affiliation of Defendants' goods and services.

9 60. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the 10 Defendants' acts were committed, and continue to be committed, with actual notice of 11 RooR / Sream's exclusive rights and with intent to cause confusion, to cause mistake,
12 and/or to deceive, and to cause injury to the reputation and goodwill associated with RooR
13 / Sream and genuine RooR products. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, Plaintiff is, therefore,
14 entitled to recover three times its actual damages or three times each of the Defendants'
15 profits, whichever is greater, together with Plaintiffs attorneys' fees. In addition, pursuant 16 to 15 U.S.C. § 1118, Plaintiff is entitled to an order requiring destruction of all infringing
17 materials in Defendants' possession.

18 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Unlawful Practice, Arizona Revised Statutes § 44-1522 et seq.)

20 61. Plaintiff incorporates here by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 21 60 above.

22 62. Each of the Defendants' conduct as alleged herein constitutes unlawful 23 practices in the course of a business, trade, or commerce, in violation of A.R.S. § 44-1522, 24 et seq.

25 63. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that as a direct and 26 proximate result of Defendants' wrongful conduct as described above, each of the 27 Defendants have gained property and revenues properly belonging to Plaintiff. Plaintiff
28 therefore seeks restitution of these amounts. Plaintiff also seeks injunctive relief

1 restraining Defendants, their officers, agents, and employees, and all persons acting in 2 concert with them, from further engaging in acts of unfair competition and/or fraudulent
3 business acts against RooR / Sream and its intellectual property.

4 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Common Law Unfair Competition)

6 64. Plaintiff incorporates here by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through
7 63 above.

8 65. This cause of action arises under the common law.

9 66. Upon information and belief, Defendants will continue to infringe the 10 registered and unregistered RooR Marks.

11 67. By the acts and activities of Defendants complained of herein, Defendants 12 have been unjustly enriched.

13 68. As a direct and proximate result of the acts and activities of Defendants 14 complained of herein, Sream has been damaged in an amount not yet ascertainable. When 15 Sream has ascertained the full amount of damages, it will seek leave of court to amend this 16 Complaint accordingly.

17 69. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, 18 in doing the things herein alleged, acted willfully, maliciously, oppressively and 19 despicably, with full knowledge of the adverse effect of their actions on RooR / Sream,
20 and with willful and deliberate disregard for the consequences to RooR / Sream.

21 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

22 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Sream, Inc. respectfully requests the following relief
23 against Defendants, and each of them, as follows:
